

'Meet the Controller' ATC Update with Q&A

John Prast, a Controller with decades of experience, will provide an update on recent changes to area instrument approaches and also share insights to help improve ATC/pilot communications. John will share real-life stories that are both entertaining and educational from his years behind the microphone. Attendees are encouraged to come with questions as this presentation includes a question & answer session.

This event will be immediately followed by a Green Bay IMC Club meeting which also qualifies separately for WINGS credits. Preregistration for the IMC Club meeting is encouraged but not required.

Directions: Upstairs meeting room at Jet Air FBO.
